Energy Efficiency Integration- Transforming a Public Agency

Community Development Commission of Mendocino County

Table Discussion
Let's Get to Know Each Other

1. Who is in the room?
2. What are three obstacles preventing your agencies from integrating EE into operational decision making?

Community Development Commission of Mendocino County

Our Story

Community Development Commission of Mendocino County

Contextual Background

- Concept
- PG&E Innovator Pilot
- Development
- Implementation

Community Development Commission of Mendocino County

A Lesson in Public Policy
The Name of the Game is… Incremental Changes!

1. EE procurement and purchasing procedures
2. Training and education
3. Personnel handbook revisions
4. Energy efficiency capital planning tool
5. Games and rewards

Results

Community Development Commission of Mendocino County

Energy Efficiency Results

1. 23% reduction in office energy use

2. Energy Star certification – first public facility in Mendocino County

3. Increased participation of low-income clients in EE programs

Community Development Commission of Mendocino County

Longer Term Results
Holistic Integration of EE

1. Morale
2. Focus of Executive Team, including Board
3. Creation of Development and Sustainability Department – recent addition of Facilities Division
4. Sustainability improvements
5. Values-based rather than grant-driven

RESPONSIBLE ENERGY AWARENESS PRACTICES
REAP
Reap the Rewards!

Community Development Commission of Mendocino County

Questions?

For more information about REAP, please contact us!

Community Development
Commission of Mendocino County
1076 N State St
Ukiah, CA 95482
www.cdchousing.org
www.mendoenergy.org

Key Staff Contacts:

Craig Schlatter, Development and Sustainability Manager
Phone: 707-463-5462 ext. 109
Email: schlattc@cdchousing.org

Austin McCaffrey, Sustainability and Energy Efficiency Specialist
Phone: 707-463-5462 ext. 106
Email: mccaffreya@cdchousing.org

Responsible Energy Awareness Practices
REAP
Reap the Rewards!

MENDO-LAKE energy watch

Building Sustainable Communities

Community Development Commission of Mendocino County