

Organized by:

Santa Ana River

Watershed Ambassador Program For Local Policymakers

Certified by:

Orange County Final Agenda

Workshop Two: Collaborative Planning in the Face of Uncertainty

Tuesday, January 21, 2020 | 9:00 AM – 3:30 PM

Donald Dungan Library - Adams Room; 1855 Park Ave, Costa Mesa, CA 92627

Local Workshop Host: Council Member Arlis Reynolds, City of Costa Mesa

9:00 AM

Optional Breakfast

Catered coffee and light breakfast will be provided

9:30 AM

Welcome

Local Government Commission & Local Elected Host Council Member Arlis Reynolds

9:50 AM

The Water and Land-Use Nexus: Why now?

Attendees will explore the connections between water and land-use decision-making and identify why the current state of California's infrastructure requires a systems-thinking approach.

10:30 AM

Networking Break

10:40 AM

The Who's Who of Local Water and Land-Use Planning

Attendees will review the water, land-use, and region-specific plans that govern local decision-making, and identify where there are gaps and opportunities for integration.

11:50 AM

Networking Break

12:00 PM

Lunchtime Panel: Regional Experts on Collaborative Planning

Catered Lunch will be provided. A panel of local experts will provide a brief overview of what coordinated planning looks like in the context of their work, following by audience Q&A.

Panel: Greg Woodside, Executive Director of Planning and Natural Resources, OCWD

Beatrice Musacchia, Senior Environmental Resources Specialist, County of Orange

Keith Linker, Principal Civil Engineer, City of Anaheim

12:45 PM

Networking Break

1:00 PM

Water and Land-Use in Action: Multi-Benefit Projects

Attendees will look beyond single problem, single solution projects and learn more about local multi-benefit projects, case studies for coordinated planning, and best practices to ensure coordination in development decisions.

Speaker: Greg Woodside, Executive Director of Planning and Natural Resources, OCWD

2:10 PM

Networking Break

2:20 PM

Collaborative Watershed Leadership

Attendees will practice the principles of effective collaboration in teams and identify opportunities to improve cross-sector collaborative leadership in the context of their work.

3:10 PM

Closing Remarks

3:30 PM

Adjourn