

Camp Evans Wilderness Park

- Partnership with City of Riverside Parks and Riverside Public Utilities
- Multi-use Space that includes:
  - Habitat/Creek Restoration ~ 50 acres
  - Public Educational Wilderness Trail throughout
  - Native Habitat Interpretive Signage
  - Restoration/Recreation of Historic Scout Camp Facility
  - Public “Wilderness” activities such as archery range, picnic areas, trails, etc.
  - Improve Water Quality into Evans Lake/Creek
  - Awarded $2m construction funds through IRWM Prop 1 grant

Figure 19
City of Riverside Fairmount Park Wilderness Camp Plan
Evans Creek Opportunities and Constraints Memo

The LRNC Consortium will maximize educational and ecological value of the site through the promotion of community engagement, sustainability, watershed protection, and historical/cultural significance. The LRNC Consortium, Your Long Term Partner.

Louis Rubidoux Nature Center and Sunnyslope Creek Restoration

- Partnership between:
  - Valley District
  - Orange County Water District
  - Inland Empire Resource Conservation District
  - Huerta del Valle
  - Sunshine Haven
  - Riverside County Parks and Open Space District
- Over 40-acre property that will be home to:
  - Educational Facilities and Programs
  - Land Revitalization
  - Sunnyslope Creek Restoration and Maintenance
  - Sustainable Agriculture
  - Wildlife Rehabilitation